17 Glendale Ave, West Albury

The life and the style!

A beautifully maintained residence with commanding street appeal on the high side of the road in a most sought after West Albury location.

Immaculately presented, the residence comprises large formal lounge and dining areas, central hostess kitchen with quality stainless steel appliances and dishwasher overlooking a spacious, second living area. There are three (3) bedrooms including generous master suite with ensuite and full length mirrored robe, built in robes in remaining two (2) bedrooms. The home comprises ducted evaporative cooling throughout, gas heating and ceiling fans in all bedrooms.

Outdoors has been immaculately maintained and boasts an elevated undercover entertaining area with built in hot tub and views to the West Albury hills, perfect for entertaining all year round. Some garden shedding, double lock up car accommodation with remote control entry, all on a securely fenced well established 814m² allotment.

At only 4km west of the Albury central business district and so convenient to Albury/Wodonga private hospital and other specialist medical facilities, West Albury has fast become a most sought after dress circle location.
